NEXT MEETING 7:00 PM,
Monday, September 8, 2014

“Anna Johnson & Chris Franczek ” will discuss the December Trial

President's Message

Here it is September already, we have DOCOF coming up on Aug. 31st at the Orlando Fairgrounds. We have 2 Great Teams to send this year., they have been practicing just about every week to get ready for the competition.

Responsible Dog Owner Day will be on September 6th at Volusia Mall, we hope all members that wish to participate will come. We have demos lined up all day in obedience, agility, rally and freestyle (dancing dogs). The crowds love to see the dogs working but if you can't bring a dog, please come and join us anyway. Please wear you club shirt and dark shorts or slacks, details of the event are on page 6.

The Rachel Flatley Seminar will be held at our training center on September 13 & 14th, if you missed this seminar the first time we held it, please make your reservation as soon a possible. We only have audit spots left and you can get the registration form at the training center.

Our classes are filling up so quickly, so I can't stress enough about sending in your application as soon as possible. You almost have to send in as soon as you see a schedule posted. I'm already taking reservations for the October classes. Remember, Puppy, Basic and Intermediate classes are limited to 12, we might take a couple more in Puppy not the others. Applications for all classes are required, if you sign up for a class at the center, you need to fill out an application and put in an envelope with your check so Renee' knows what class you are taking.

See you at the September meeting,

Joan Costello

Quick Notes

AKC has approved our December Trials and has also approved the change of locations for our July Trials. Our July Trial will have limited entry this year until we find out how everything works out. Anna Johnson said we will have 3 rings so that there will be sufficient crating and chairs.

Nancy Sutton said she will step down at the end of the year as the person in charge of making our monthly dinner reservations at restaurants around our area. Because of so much going on in the dog world there has been a decrease in attendance at our dinners and suggested that we might consider doing away with the monthly dinners.

Marque Sign we are working on having a sign at our Training Center so people will know which unit is ours.

Monthly Club Meetings will continue to be at our Training Center.

Sincere Thank You,

To all the club members who reached out to contact and help me when I was in TN injured It's very frightening to be trapped in a hotel room unable to care for your dog or get home. The calls, texts emails were a great comfort and helped keep me focused as I worked through stuff to get back home. You guys are all so appreciated.

OCOD's participation in "Responsible Dog Ownership Days" (RDOD) Saturday, Sept. 6, 2014

What exactly is RDOD? An excerpt from an AKC press release last year reads: New York, NY Americans have embraced dog ownership for centuries, and many people today view their dogs as cherished members of the family. Owning a dog is not a right, however, but a privilege that must be respected and nurtured. It's crucial to recognize that there is a lot of work that goes into dog ownership - a happy, healthy and well trained canine is not created overnight! That's why AKC hosts AKC Responsible Dog Ownership Days each September - to keep the focus on Fido! This month, dog owners and dog lovers everywhere will join hundreds of AKC-affiliated dog clubs across the country for the AKC's seventh annual celebration. Nearly 500 events are being held in local communities this year, with the goal of educating and entertaining all current and future dog owners. All AKC Responsible Dog Ownership Day events are listed at <http://www.akc.org/clubs/rdod/events/>.

OCOD members are encouraged to go the AKC website shown at the end of the above press release and investigate the large amount of information available, from downloadable coloring books to information on more serious matters. OCOD is listed in the calendar of events.

We are fortunate to have the support of the management of the Volusia Mall by allowing us to use a significant amount of space at the mall at no charge and to allow us to bring dogs into the mall that day in order to take part in various demos and to help spread the word about RDOD.

The event date is Saturday, September 6, 2014, from 11:00 am - 4:00 pm. We have several other clubs and organizations signed up as participants and for demos.

Please plan to enter the mall at the northeast entrance (that's on the "back side" of the mall, i.e.; farthest from International Speedway Blvd.) in the corner where Macy's meets the main part of the mall (see mall map).

OCOD members interested in helping out, whether with setup, demos and/or packing up, should contact either Pat Mozden (patmozden@cfl.rr.com or 788-3800) or Debbie Canevaro (dcanevaro@cfl.rr.com or 386-212-6962).

Those setting up should plan to arrive at the mall no later than 7:30 am. Those packing up should either stay until, or arrive at, 4:00 pm.

Tables and tablecloths for participants to display their information are being provided by the mall. However, please plan to bring your own chair. Anyone bringing a dog should plan to bring a crate of the size that you would take to a show or obedience trial. Also bring supplies similar to what you would take to a trial (water, bowl, cleanup supplies, etc.). While dogs are allowed in the area we will be using, they should not be walked or carried elsewhere in the mall.

Thanks in advance...

Pat Mozden and Debbie Canevaro
